FALL 2009 WORKSHOP

September 26, 2009

8:00AM – 12:00PM

Chapman Auditorium, Francis Marion University

The COE Fall Workshop is an event designed to provide participants with practical, research-based information focusing on the needs and abilities of children of poverty. The program includes a keynote address by Don Doggett, Principal of James J. Davis Early Learning Center and Whale Branch Elementary School in Seabrook, SC, and over 18 breakout sessions.

NEW Special Administrators' Track!

Please encourage all leaders to attend the NEW Special Administrators' Track. Two breakout sessions have been especially planned for principals and assistant principals. Don Doggett will lead a session entitled Conversations with Don Doggett and Mary Martin, Assistant Professor at Winthrop University, will lead a session entitled Instructional Leadership in Schools of Poverty: Recognizing and Supporting Strategies that Work.

Mr. Don D. Doggett
Keynote Speaker
8:30 am – 9:30 am

Leadership Matters: How 2 Promote Academic Achievement through Collaboration

What are the most effective strategies that teachers and administrators can use to promote academic success with children of poverty? In this presentation Mr. Doggett will share experiences and strategies for facilitating successful academic experiences for children of poverty and ways that he and his teachers work together to meet the academic and social needs of ALL students.

Don is passionate about ensuring that ALL children have an opportunity to excel. His desire is for each child to continue adding rooms, doors, and hallways of knowledge.
